

I do not believe that FCC as a Federal Institution has the right to interfere with the rights of individual states to control their own destiny. The New Jersey "Do Not Call List" protects the citizens of New Jersey from personal invasion of privacy. Many state laws exceed those of the Federal Government and this is no exception. The Federal no call list was a good idea and this just enhances its benefits.

Thank you.